Sanyam Gairola

Java Developer | Completed Internship @ Cognifyz Technologies
(July 2024) | C++ | DSA | OOP | Tech Enthusiast
Dehradun, Uttarakhand, India

Summary

My internship at Cognifyz Technologies was a pivotal experience where our team contributed to robust software solutions, enhancing my skills in C++ and Object-Oriented Programming. This role allowed me to apply my academic knowledge from Uttarakhand Technical University, where I study Computer Science, to real-world tech challenges.

With certifications in both Python Programming and Data Structures, my commitment extends to being a dynamic part of a team where collaboration and innovation are at the forefront. The goal is not just personal growth but also contributing to impactful technology projects that resonate with my dedication to the field.
